MBA has become essential to ensure fast track career growth or to secure managerial jobs or for running a business enterprise successfully. International MBA programs offered by Jaro Education are developed to meet the development needs of working executives and managers, allowing them to earn an MBA in a year or less while working full time thereby minimising disruption of work and personal earnings. As working professionals already have exposure to organisational working, they are well acquainted with the business communication, culture, and environment and are also well versed with organisational structure, team building, and motivational strategies, now they need to learn the theories of advanced management techniques and strategies and put them into action to ensure fast career growth. Since they can grasp fast and apply theory to day-to-day working, the efforts required are less than 50% as compared to fresh graduates and hence the MBA is of lesser duration (one year or so).
